Invitation

Dear Esteemed Colleagues and Friends,

Greetings from Ricon'24 !!

On behalf of the Scientific Committee, We are delighted to welcome you all to the 36th Annual Conference of Indian Radiological & Imaging Association RICON 2024 set to take place in the vibrant city of Uttar Pradesh, Noida at 16th & 17th November 2024. With its rich cultural heritage and technological advancements, Noida promises to be an ideal backdrop for our upcoming conference.

Our scientific committee is diligently crafting a comprehensive program that will cater to the diverse needs of both seasoned radiologists and enthusiastic radiology residents. The theme - Clinical Radiology Decoded is relevant in today's evolving radiology practice. Renowned experts and thought leaders in the field will share their insights through engaging lectures, innovative demonstrations, ensuring an enriching experience for all attendees. The delegates will also have a platform to present their cutting-edge scientific work.

Noida, known for its bustling energy and hospitable culture, city Noida houses a number of tourist places for entertainment, leisure, shopping, food, and amusement parks will provide the perfect setting for a conference that seamlessly blends academic excellence with opportunities for networking and camaraderie. Join us for an unforgettable experience that combines the best of academic enrichment and the vibrant spirit of Noida.

Your participation in this conference would be a tremendous honor and would greatly contribute to the diversity and depth of the discussions. We are confident that your insights and expertise will enrich the program and inspire fellow attendees.

Kindly block the dates, conference registration and abstract submission will open soon. For the latest updates, keep watching our conference website

We eagerly anticipate the opportunity to welcome you and your esteemed colleagues to the 36th Annual Conference of Indian Radiological & Imaging Association RICON 2024. Let's come together to learn, share, and forge new connections in the ever-evolving field of radiology.

Warm regards,
Organising Committee.
